If the columns above could only speak, what a story they could tell! They would teach a history lesson of human drama to rival any best seller list or silver screen epic.

Timeless and enduring are these symbols of our college education and growth.

Volume 61 of the COLUMNS can and will speak clearly and enthusiastically in retrospection of a year gone by. We are familiar with the cliché "a picture is worth a thousand words"; therefore, with pictures as well as the printed word we are seeking to capture an entire year of life at Anderson College as it took place underneath and around the columns — an important year for each person since it is a year never to be lived again. A year of personal trials, testing, victories, growth, heartaches, happiness, and learning more about ones self and others; a year of loving, loathing, caring, sharing, shrinking, rejecting, reaching, exploring.

Turn with us through the pages of your life at Anderson College, 1984-1985. For the COLUMNS can and will speak!

con-tent (kōn tēnt) n. 1. Often Contents. Something that is contained in a receptacle. 2. Subject matter of a book or other written work. 3. The meaning or significance of a literary or artistic work as distinguished from its forms. analysis n. The systematic analysis of the content rather than the structure of a communication, ideas, feelings, assertions, and personal references, (Lat. contentus, p. part. of continere, to contain).

Not knowing and having a delicate regard for the truth, I hesitate to speak authoritatively on a subject which I can not conscientiously substantiate; however, after extended consultation with the Anderson College Chapter of the Semantics Research Center, Ltd. (ACCSRC) Homebase: Merritt Basement, third washroom along, shelf 4, abandoned shoebox under wet newspapers, I have sufficient confidence to suggest that, in reality, this means:

WHAT'S IN THIS BOOK

REGISTRATION! That wonderful little process which allows each and every one of us to become official Anderson College Students. This year at AC, registration was undertaken with a more modern approach, and computers were intruded to expedite the system! Here you see some enthusiastic students who were unknowingly made the guinea pigs for the new system! Fortunately it was no major trauma, and life on campus returned to normal.

STUDENT LIFE

College life is never as much fun unless you experience it with friends. Here are some good friends ranging anywhere from South Rouse to Lawton Hall, to Eastern Botswana exhibiting the necessity to group together, interact and in general, experience dormitory life collectively.

Don, Phyllis, Clegg, and Ann took time out from their rigorous studying habits to meditate one pretty afternoon and also share some mutual encouragement to continue on.

No matter where he goes, David Wolfe always manages to entrance passersby by offering them first-hand knowledge on the enjoyment of tennis practice. He poses here with three of his latest victims.

One of the great aspects of friendship is the ongoing tradition of having someone to lean on. It would appear that some of the boys in South Rouse could no longer take the pressures and heartbreaks of the night life and decided to stop and lean on each other in their front yard.

The summer of '84 saw the emergence of a classic tune by California's Van Halen. Showing their deep regard and loyal dedication for Anderson College females, these guys decided to take the bands advice and "Go Ahead And Jump."

Not having quite as much zeal or energy, the girls decided to sit and discuss the issue of AC men calmly and quietly.

Ever so often, one comes across a friend who takes a great interest in seeing that buddies are well nourished and cared for.

Just Being Ourselves — Together

When you're out enjoying leisure time with your friends what could possibly be more entertaining than taking advantage of left-over construction pipes for playing and posing.

Realizing how ridiculous such public displays of silliness can be, these residents of the new dorm felt the need to run and disguise themselves as woodland elves.

Feeling the need to show skills in balance and coordination, the girls decided to abandon the forest and climb on one another until a pyramid effect had been somewhat achieved. Don't be fooled by the smiles on their faces, even geometrical art can be heavy.

In keeping with the lyrics of that delightful tune, these unsuspecting girls found out that, "WHAT GOES UP MUST COME DOWN."

Whether it is swinging, dancing or eating, it's always so much nicer with a friend.

"Darlene, would you please hurry up with your ice cream, I want to meet some of these good-looking guys."

"I'll show these people what gettin' down is all about."

We're never too athletically entranced to give a smile.

At an out-door picnic, students and teachers took time to eat, chat and enjoy the weather.

"I'm sorry fellas, but we'll have to organize this. Please have my secretary give you a number and wait in the lobby."

Don't Worry, We're Still Just Being Ourselves.

A delightful look into the music of the Go-Go's uniquely exhibited by Jack and the boys.

A spine-tingling look into "The Dark Side" with Eddie and the Cruisers, via Clay Rainey Brett Carnes, Len Solsbee and a long list of musical maniacs.

Martin Davis and friends portrayed Morris Day and The Time in the AC Air Band Contest. Leading us through a modern musical experience, The Band entertained and intrigued young men and women everywhere.

Assuming the role of Madonna, Cindy and the girls took the awesome responsibility of warming up the crowd, a job masterfully executed through dance and song.

More escapades and musical madness from Tracey, Cindy,
and Allison.

Whether sharing the thrill of victory or the agony of defeat, these players remain faithful.

Who Said College Can't Be Beautiful?

Ann is just realxing in the sun.

Elizabeth is playing cover girl.

Jo is just being herself.

"Come on fellas, let's kick back, throw on a little jam and pose for the man."

Just a typical college afternoon, hangin' around.

"Goodnight, roommate, hope you sleep tight." "Goodnight, would you keep the snoring down, please?"

George Carson and Gene Ziegler, unsuspecting victims of — THE KILLER DR. PEPPER MACHINE!

It's a tough job, but someone's got to take the first step off of the curb.

Alright, now huddle up, we're going to run a wishbone right and we'll option the hand-off up the middle. — Ready? BREAK!

Traditionally, the library has been thought of as a place of study, to gain knowledge, and in general, increase one's mental prowess. These girls are exhibiting a trend for the '80's. Who said the library can't be used for hide and seek.

Occasionally, we find traditional methods still in progress.

Just some typical AC girls, never too entranced socially to stop and give a smile.

One Day In The Mind Of A Typical AC Student

CASE STUDY NUMBER ONE.

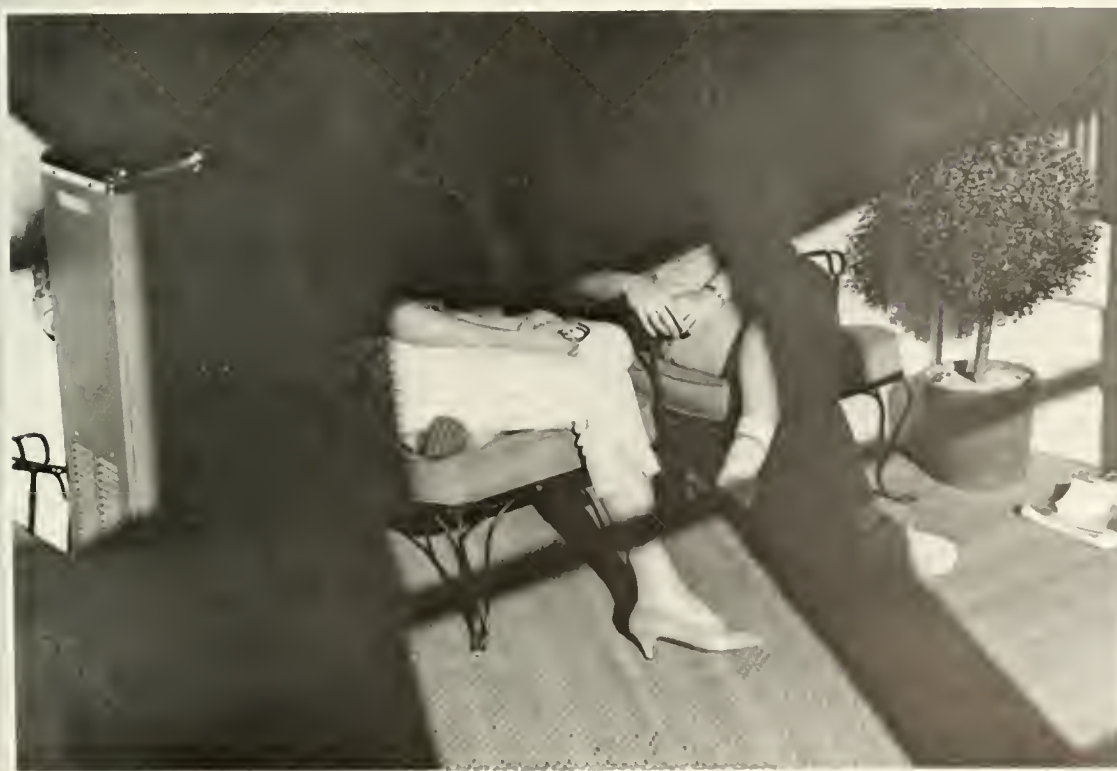

Steve Pace, a unique individual. experiences four facets of existence in this touching panorama. We see Steve observing outdoor activities (keep in mind the grin) and feeling secure away from it all. After summoning up the courage to brave the outdoors, he resorts to hiding in the bushes.

Steve's antics also include a piercing gravitational study only rivaled by his balancing expertise.

Case Study Number Two

William Russell leads the average on-looker into believing he is studying. More accurate sources reveal that his thoughts wander astray to such far-fetched ideas as girl chasing in the leaves to a mystical dream-state in which he sees shadows and nuances of light striated into haunting imagery. Is there some deeper meaning?

Just a few loyal fans at one of the week's grueling but exciting intramural softball games.

Greg Shealy is merely expressing a signal penalizing looking so good in public.

No college sport, such as Women's Softball or group activity, like cheerleading, could be effectively and thoroughly pursued without proper stretching, warming up and in general good calas-thenics. Now come on ladies, all together and one and two and three!

College Competition — Cheering Together

Intra-mural sports play a big part in all students daily routine. It is a time to take a break from study habits and compete with other dorms and other classmates. "Come on Greg, smack that thing out of here!"

An enthusiastic crowd cheers on the two teams during an intra-mural play-off game.

After a long night of cheering and competing Chris and Danny see the need for an immediate nap. The problem was, who needed it worse?

Individual Expression

Nick Shady sits in the cafeteria contemplating the possibilities of eating the meal that sits before him.

Alecia captivates the tender essence of a tranquil robin peering at her reflection in the birdbath.

What could be more relaxing after a long night of studying than a wrestling match before bed!?

CASE STUDY NUMBER THREE Mark Jackson becomes an unsuspecting victim of a terrible scientific experiment. Poor Mr. Jackson thinks he is merely enjoying large quantities of his favorite carbonated beverage. Unbeknownst to him, the containers were filled with a solution that would bring out the hidden thoughts within his head. A terrifying beast lurking in the floorboards and under the carpets of any unsuspecting victim's pathway. Furthermore, a mischievous gremlin playing out his slyest practical jokes!

The Continuing Saga Of — Student Life

After a hard day of studying and taking care of his various Residential Assistant duties, Richie Abbott takes a nap to dream about hunting and pulling down a world record deer.

It would appear that the only problems taking place at Anderson College are finding enough pretty young ladies to go around for everybody.

Robin and Suzanne appear to be studying intensely but in reality Suzanne is writing a "Dear John" letter to an unsuspecting victim and Robin is reading the fourth chapter of her book entitled "Tips for Eighties Women, A Complete Guide into The Female Social Aura".

Billy Richardson, Carlos Ortezt, Clay Rainey, Brett Carnes, John Denkins, Lyn Solesbee — They're concerned A.C. men with a mission and guts to get the job done!

"I think these plants have finally bit the dust, I told you painting them green wouldn't help!"

Just Remember,
Somebody Is Watching You!

A Typical College Morning

"Good morning, Joe this is your 4:00 A.M. wake up call — rise and shine!" "You've got to be kidding me, I just got in the bed! O.K., just five more minutes."

Now, Joe, you know you have to get up and study some more for your big Religion Test!"

But, I was having this great dream, I was a thousand miles away and I was relaxing on the beach. All I could hear was the roar of the ocean, yes, I remember now, I had won a free vacation for having made a 116 on my exam in religion. It was so wonderful!"

"Joe, on second thought, you stay right there I'm sending a doctor over to examine you, I think you have bumped your head!"

Anderson College Assets

Who said working in the Post Office was no fun?

Santa Claus (Clay Rainey) exhibits one of the advantages of being the merriest person in town.

Some More Individual Expression — From An Automotive Standpoint.

Some of the young ladies stopped their cheering long enough to pose for us.

Daydreaming at night? Anything is possible at A.C.

Following up on what was thought to be just a superstition, the photographer of this picture actually experienced a haunting, capturing on film three free-roaming, full-torso fantasmis in the lobby of Merrit Administration Building.

Another Anderson College pretty face.

You're just never sure where and when some unsuspecting photographer will sneak up on you.

Of course there are also those who aren't camera shy at all.

Who really knows what goes on behind closed doors at A.C.? The Student Government Association is structured to function for the student body. Here, just a typical meeting to discuss campus issues.

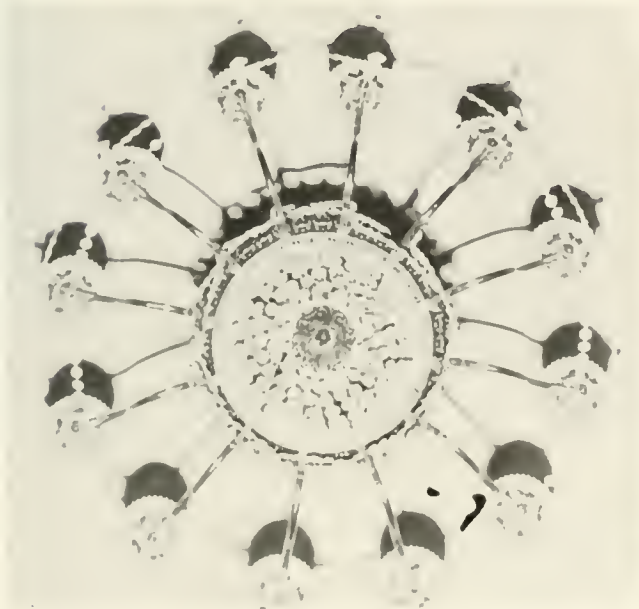

Off The Wall!

Apparently some strange alien spacecraft followed by the emergence of its operator running in the shadows. Can you identify?

Whatever Mary is talking about so intensely, has Rinken in deep meditation.

Due to that terribly grueling work load, time in the library, to study becomes a valuable college asset.

A.C. Individuality

Love That A.C. Personality!

So, kids, how's the swing?

All a part of the wonderful college experience
we call Anderson College.

In cooperation with fine stores everywhere and the international magazines of art, culture, and fashion: G.Q., Jet, and Ebony, Anderson College will release its own catalogue of fashion and art for campus wear.

Pictured below, our own model — Samuel L. Johnson, Esquire, displays a late afternoon, evening attire attenuated for an active and comfortable night on the town. This season's theme for dress is — "Be the One" — One of Mr. Johnsons' own personal mottos.

Mr. Johnson will be holding a personal autograph session immediately following his fashion tour of Europe. Tickets for the session will be on sale soon, so ladies please do not delay because there are only a limited number of seats available.

He travels city to city, so many hearts he has won
Dressed to a tee, showing all the young men how it's done
Sammy Johnson on the beach under a golden sun
He turns his head, winks, and says, "You too can be the one."

The unmistakable truth is that Anderson College students' favorite pasttime is goofing off. However, there is some merit in this particular case — these students are obviously exhausted after a long week of exams, a college phenomenon that traditionally takes young minds to the parameters of sanity. These individuals, however, seem to have held up pretty well, everything considered!

Warm college afternoons spent thinking of you. The passion, the drama, the intrigue that we so affectionately call A.C.

Meanwhile, back at South Rouse, Clem finds time to present us with a bit of optical illusion. Here, he displays his incredible elastic man act — Look how real the illusion appears.

The many facets of interrelationships that come together to make up Anderson College. This year has seen much scholastic and social changes in each of the minds and hearts of its students.

"Now, I want you people to listen to me, our M&M sales are way down this month. What is wrong with you people, don't you know that college people eat more junk food than anyone else in the country!?"

"Next month I expect all of you to bring thousands of dollars in to me — all you have to do is use your brain with those incompetent youngsters, I know they'll buy it." (NO, no, purely satire folks — here's to the S.A.A. for a lot of hard work!

Avis Ellis has a warm smile to give at Christmas time, a gift which is priceless during this particular season of sharing and caring.

M F I

Here is a group of Anderson College individuals who definitely need no introduction. You've read about them in magazines, you've heard about them on radio and television shows, such as "Sixty Minutes" and now they are in Anderson County to terrorize you personally. Yes, it's that international plague, when referred to by it's common name is known throughout the civilized world as — M.F.I.

This particular group of "individuals" have an uncanny knack for making college life unique. They dare not go unmentioned this year because of the definite impact they have had on everyone they have come in contact with.

Even though phrases such as "Pillars of the community" and "Solid subservient citizens" DO NOT apply to this bunch, we have come to recognize their sense of "energy" and "campus involvement."

As long as you lock all your doors and windows tonight they pose no potential threat. Just take the friendly advice and Be Aware.

Just when you thought affection had left A.C., we come up with some candid photos to prove you wrong. Even in the wintertime you'll see young couples prancing around campus with all the energy of spring.

Meanwhile, out on the tennis courts, William Howard practices up on his serving. I suggest John McEnroe should be very aware of this powerhouse!

GROUP

A knot or lump, Germanic origin — a bunch; compare — kropf, a crop

1. Generally, a cluster, crowd, or throng: an assemblage either of persons or things; a number collected without any regular form or arrangement.

(A group of men or a group of trees)

2. A collection of individuals having some mutual relation or resemblance. In geology, the term is used in many senses; in biology the term may be used to include a number of genera, species, or even of orders.

3. In music — a series of notes sung to the same syllable a division of an orchestra comprising similar instruments.

4. In painting and sculpture an assemblage of two or more figures of men, beasts, or other things which have some relation to each other and to the design as a whole.

Whether it's hard at work or hard at play
Just typical A.C. students on a typical A.C. day.

Sometimes it seems, when encountering the rigors of campus life, the best treatment for one another is a hug.

This idea of hanging around in packs is beginning to spread throughout the college. I think we're starting to form a serious gang problem — they are good looking gangs though!

Len and Susan seem exhausted at the end of the day, but believe or not they really are happy to see each other.

Ann is in the library, when suddenly she discovers a shocking textbook filled with all kinds of ideas on that terrible little thing we call "evil."

One of the many joys about being away from home is that wonderful little adventure that takes place each day, a daily ritual commonly referred to as checking your mail. It can be an exhilarating experience, provided your trip is not in vain, so get in the habit of filling up some lonely campus kids' empty portal.

The Student Center is a central point of campus life. It not only contains the Post Office, but also all the Student Government offices, the A.C. store and the campus canteen for occasional snacks.

Every student spends time here and it is a pleasant place to come and relax from the tension of everyday life at school.

Some of the girls in the Pratt Dormitory exhibit a little bit of that togetherness that has been so well represented this year at A.C.

It would appear that they are upset with one of their roommates and are taking evasive action to solve the problem — notice the look on the poor puppies' face.

Dear Mom

You wouldn't believe things here at school! Today, for instance, I failed a Sociology test, my roommate was kidnapped by a bunch of girls, my goldfish committed suicide, wild horses trampled all my clothes, my car was stolen and on top of that the janitor declared my room a nuclear waste zone.

Hello honey,

I'm going to be a little bit late for dinner tonight — I have had calls from the Braves and the Angels and I have to tell them something or I'll have to buy some other baseball team. You know how hard they are to find these days, don't you?

Yes, a complicated identification process goes into effect every time you enter the cafeteria. Just another complication to being a student.

I can't believe it, I actually passed English! Do you think sending him the cakes, cookies, and candy kisses helped?

Where thou goest, there goest I also. But at least take time for a picture.

COLUMNS: Monumental Pillars
Memorable Photographs

PORTICOS, COLONNADES — WHAT WOULD THEY BE WITHOUT COLUMNS, THE SCULPTURED STRUCTURED SYSTEM FOR UNDERGIRDING WITH STRENGTH WHILE DISPLAYING GREAT BEAUTY OF CONCEPT?!

1984-85, WHAT WOULD THIS YEAR BE WITHOUT "THE COLUMNS" TO REINFORCE THE MEMORIES AND DISPLAY THE LOVELINESS OF AN ENVIRONMENT FOR CAMPUS LIFE AT ANDERSON COLLEGE?

Walking up the sidewalk to Watkins Teaching Center, I look around nervously. Everyone else seems to know their way around so well. But how can they? This is the first day of school. Stopping in front of the steps, I gaze at the building. It sure is different from Clemson University. Everything seems more relaxed here; the people seem so friendly. Everyone except me, that is. I have not smiled once to the cheerful faces that have greeted me today. Why can't I shake this feeling of fear? I guess the fear comes from the knowledge that my future depends on how well I do in college. I am all alone; the decisions that I make now will either strengthen or destroy my plans. I must succeed here.

With much determination, I walk up the steps. Standing on the top step, I glance up at the column on my right. Its whiteness gleams in the morning sunlight. Its size and strength make it appear unconquerable; thus it adds stability to the college. This makes me feel less frightened and apprehensive about my future. If I can build my learning as this column is built, with a broad foundation and all around symmetry, I can possess a solid background in many subjects. With this thought in mind, I feel more confident about myself. Smiling to some other students, I head for my first class.

Tracy Whitten

A SONG OF SERVICE

If all my pain and all my tears,
And all that I have learned throughout the years
Could make one perfect song
To lift some fallen head
To light some darkened mind,
I should feel that not in vain
I served mankind.

SEVEN PURPOSES OF RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

1. To lead the pupil into a personal relationship with God.
 2. To give the pupil an understanding and appreciation of the life and teachings of Jesus, to lead him to accept Christ as Savior, Friend, Companion, and Lord, and to lead him into loyalty to Christ and his cause.
 3. To lead to a progressive development of Christian character.
 4. To lead into enthusiastic and intelligent participation of the building of a Christian community and world.
 5. To develop the ability and desire to participate in the life and work of the church.
 6. To give a Christian interpretation of life and the universe.
 7. To give a knowledge, understanding, and love of the Bible.

If you have anything really valuable to contribute to the world, it will come through the expression of your own personality — that single spark of divinity that sets you off and makes you different from every other living creature.

— Bruce Barton

Laughter is expression of the heart
It is such a joy when you take part.
A smile is so easy to give
We should all just love as we live.
I give a happy heart over to you
You give me yours too.
I need to hear your voice,
in your cheerfulness, I rejoice.
Show how much you really care
Give your laughter for all to share.

— John Duncan

Success is to be measured not so much by the position that one has reached in life
as by the obstacles which he has overcome while trying to succeed.

— Booker T. Washington

That man is a success who has lived well,
Laughed often and loved much;
Who has gained the respect of intelligent
Men and the love of children;
Who has filled his niche and accomplished his task:
Who leaves the world better than
he found it,
Whether by an improved poppy,
A perfect poem or a rescued soul;
Who never lacked appreciation
Of earth's beauty or failed to express it;
Who looked for the best in others
And gave the best he had.

Columns holding up mansions,
majestic and tall.
For children to laugh or dance around,
or when sad to lean upon,
Like columns to the mansions,
Are true friends in our lives,
Uplifting and supporting, through good or troubled times,
Always there to laugh with or just to lean upon.

SILENT SENTENCES

WITHOUT THE WAY THERE IS NO GOING; WITHOUT THE TRUTH THERE IS NO KNOWING; WITHOUT THE LIFE THERE IS NO LIVING.
— THOMAS A. KEMPIS

The language of friendship is not words, but meanings. It is an intelligence above language.

Each man can interpret another's experience only by his own. — Thoreau

Friendship is the highest degree of perfection in society. — Montaigne

We cannot tell the precise moment when friendship is formed. As in filling a vessel drop by drop, there is at last a drop which makes it run over; so in a series of kindnesses there is at last one which makes the heart run over.

THE JOURNEY OF A THOUSAND MILES
BEGINS WITH ONE STEP

— Lao-Tse

If you come cheerily,
Here shall be jest for you;
If you come wearily,
Here shall be rest for you.

If you come borrowing,
Gladly we'll loan to you;
If you come sorrowing,
Love shall be shown to you.

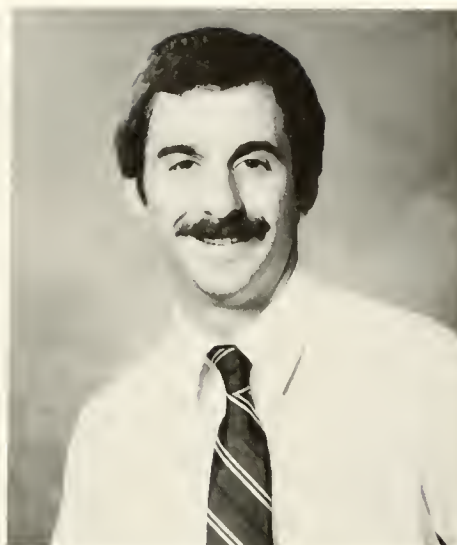

Under our thatch, friend,
Place shall abide for you,
Touch but the latch, friend,
The door will swing wide for you!

So, what do you think of our teachers? We thought this would be a good place to throw you a few words of wisdom.

To know how to suggest is the art of the teacher — (Amiel)

The true aim of every one who aspires to be a teacher should be, not to impart his own opinions, but to kindle minds. (F.W. Robertson)

Thoroughly to teach another is the best way to learn for yourself. (T. Edwards)

The one exclusive sign of a thorough knowledge is the power of teaching. (Aristotle)

The Anderson College Women's Softball Team

She stares down the long corridor towards her awaiting attacker. A second of concentration and one fatal sweep of the bat perpetuates on entire year of practice and discipline. Here lies the drama in the ever-intensifying world of women's softball.

Much training and effort goes into the preparation for a softball season. It seems at different times during the semester that the women's softball team never leaves the training field. This dedication is a trademark of Coach Pam Bryant and it surfaces in the heart and minds of all her player.

EDITOR'S NOTE

This year at Anderson College has been quite an experience for all of us. We have spent another year of learning, growing, and developing everlasting friendships. I have tried to capture a little of our life together this year. Because there are so many of us, it is impossible to vividly and perfectly portray every individual — there is so much personality at A.C. What I have tried to do though is remind you of past laughter and memories, friends, and good times that will stay part of you always.

When you think back over your times here — think of how much this place has given you. The real key will be how much you have given back.

Don't give up the fight and remain in the light!

May God bless you all,
John

PS — Hope we made you laugh too!
